GOVERNMENT OF PONDICHERY
Revenue Department

No. 3363/77/C Pondicherry the 23rd June 1977.
NOTIFICATION

G. S. R. No. 10.—In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 69 of the Registration Act (1908) (XVII of 1908) as in force in the Union territory of Pondicherry and subsequently amended by the Registration (Pondicherry Amendment) Regulation, 1967, the Inspector General of Registration, Pondicherry hereby makes the following rules with the approval of the Government as required by sub-section (2) of the said section:

RULES

1. Short title.—(1) These rules may be called the Pondicherry Document Writers Licence Rules, 1977.

2. Commencement.—These rules shall come into force at once.

3. Definition.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(1) "Document Writers" means and includes—
one who is engaged in the profession of preparing documents, namely doing the work of conveyancing including investigation of title, preparation of draft deeds and engrossing the deed on Stamp paper for registration;

(2) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;

(3) "Licence" means a Document Writers' licence granted under these rules;

(4) "Licensing Authority" means the licensing authority specified in Rule 15;

(5) "Scribe" means one who holds a Scribe Licence granted under the Pondicherry Registration (Filing of True Copies) Rules, 1970;

4. Prohibition of qualified persons.—From and after a date to be notified by the Licensing Authority, no person who is not licensed under these rules shall engage himself in the profession of a document writer.

5. Licence to whom granted.—Subject to the provisions of these rules, a licence may be granted to—

(i) any person who possesses a degree in Law of a recognised University in India or any other equivalent qualification;

(ii) any advocate or pleader practising before any Court in the Union territory of Pondicherry;

(iii) any retired officer of the Judicial or Registration Department of the Union territory of Pondicherry, and

(iv) any person who has passed the Document Writers Licensing Test.

Provided that a provisional licence may be granted to any other person who proves to the satisfaction of the Licensing Authority that he is well conversed with the preparation of deeds of conveyance, etc. and has been in continuous practice as Document Writer in the Union territory of Pondicherry for a period of not less than five years immediately preceding the date on which these rules come into force subject however to the condition that he secures a pass in the "Document Writers Licensing Test" prescribed in rule 17 within a period of two years from the date of issue of licence to him;

Provided further that the Government may on the recommendation of the Licensing Authority in appropriate cases exempt any person or class of person from the provisions of this rule.

6. Non-testamentary documents to be prepared by licensed persons only.—(1) From and after a date notified by the Licensing Authority every non-testamentary document presented for registration shall be prepared by a document writer licensed in this behalf by the Licensing Authority.

(2) From and after a date notified under sub-rule (1), no non-testamentary document shall be accepted for registration unless it is attested by the document writer.

Note.—This rule shall not apply to documents executed outside the State or by or on behalf of the Government of India or the Government of a State or Union territory in India or of Local Authorities or other bodies corporate and institutions which may by notification in the Gazette be specified by Government in this behalf.

7. Disqualification.—A licence shall not be granted to a person—

(a) if he is a minor;

(b) if he has been declared by a competent court to be of unsound mind;

(c) if he is an undischarged insolvent or being a discharged insolvent has not obtained from the Court which adjudged him as insolvent, a certificate that his insolvency was caused by misfortune without any misconduct on his part ;

(d) if he is an advocate or pleader who has been dismissed or is under suspension from practising as such by an order of any competent court ;

(e) if he has been convicted by a Criminal Court for an offence involving moral turpitude ;

(f) if he is a person suffering from leprosy ;

(g) in the case of a retired officer, if his retirement has been the result of misconduct ;

(h) if his licence has at any time been cancelled and the order cancelling the licence has not been quashed by the competent authority ;

(i) if for any other reason to be recorded in writing, the Licensing Authority considers it not desirable to issue a licence.

8. Application for licence—An application for licence shall be in Form "A" and for renewal shall be in Form "B", appended to these rules.

9. Mode of application—(1) Application for Document Writers' Licence shall be presented in person or by Agent or sent by registered post to the Sub-Registrar under whose jurisdiction the applicant ordinarily resides or to whose office he desires to be attached primarily.

(2) All applications received by the Sub-Registrar shall be forwarded with his remarks to the District Registrar who shall forward the same to the Licensing Authority with his recommendations.

(3) Fees prescribed under these rules for the grant of a Licence or its renewal shall be remitted into the State Bank of India or the Treasury as the case may be to the departmental head and the chahan therefor enclosed with the application :

Provided that the fee remitted shall be refunded to the applicant if the licence or the renewal applied for is refused.

10. Fees—Fees at the following rates shall be levied for the grant of licence and for its yearly renewal :—

| | Rs. | Rs. |
|---------------------------------------|-----|-----|
| 1. For the sub-district | 75 | 15 |
| 2. For the entire Union territory ... | 100 | 20 |

(2) If a licence is lost or destroyed a duplicate may on adequate proof of such loss or destruction be issued to the licensee on payment of Rs. 3.

Explanation—(1) In this rule, a sub-district shall be deemed to include all the Registration Offices whether principal, additional, temporary or joint having, if any, collateral jurisdiction over the entire area of the sub-district.

(ii) Documents to be registered by a "Registrar" under section 30 of the Act may be prepared and written by licensees attached to the headquarters sub-district of the district or by the licensees attached to the sub-district where the property or one of the properties effected in the document is situate.

11. Issue of licence—(1) Licences granted by the Licensing Authority shall be in Form "C" appended to these rules and shall be issued through the Sub-Registrar to whom the application for Licence was sent or presented.

(2) Any licence issued to a document writer shall be in force till the last day of the calendar year for which it was granted subject to renewal before that date by the Licensing Authority on an application of the licensee holder in Form "A".

(3) Any non-observance of the conditions of the licence or any misconduct of the licence holder during the continuance of the licence shall be treated as a disqualification to obtain renewal of a licence :

Provided that an appeal from an order of refusal to renew a licence shall lie to the Government.

(4) A licence which has not been renewed within a period of six calendar months after the expiry of the calendar year for which it was granted shall stand cancelled.

(5) If for any reason a licence has not been renewed on or before the due date, the licensee shall not be eligible to apply for a renewal in the succeeding year unless the default to renew at the due date has been condoned by the Licensing Authority.

(6) The Licensing Authority may on sufficient reasons shown condone such defaults on payment over and above the usual renewal fee, a fine as prescribed below :

(i) when the delay does not exceed two calendar months—
a fine equal to renewal fee ;

(ii) when the delay exceeds two calendar months but does not exceed four months—a fine equal to double the renewal fee;

(iii) when the delay exceeds four calendar months but does not exceed six months—a fine equal to five times the renewal fee.

12. Conditions attached to the licence—The following shall be the conditions of a licence, namely :—

(a) that the licensee shall abide by these rules for the time being in force ;

(b) that he shall maintain the registers, receipt books and other records in the manner prescribed by these rules ;

(c) that he shall not levy more than the fee prescribed in the Table of fees appended to these rules ;

(d) that he shall not demand or receive any sum from parties in the name of any person connected with Registration Offices ;

(e) that he shall not cheat or participate in any illegal transaction or dealings with the staff attached to the Registration Office ;

(f) that he shall render true and correct account of the moneys received from the parties and produce the records maintained by him for inspection at any time before such officer as may be authorised to inspect them by the Licensing Authority ;

(g) that he shall prepare and write documents neatly and legibly in clear and unambiguous terms and in accordance with the instructions that may be issued from time to time by the Licensing Authority ;

(h) that he shall instruct the parties or their duly authorised agents to present documents and to pay the fees in person direct to the Registering Officers and not through any other agency ;

(i) that he shall obey any direction that may from time to time be issued by the District Registrar regarding the preparation of documents ;

(j) that he shall set forth fully and truly the consideration or the market value and other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of any instrument with duty or the amount of duty with which it is chargeable under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 as amended from time to time ;

(k) that he shall not act as a tout ;

(l) that he shall not appear as an identifying witness of anybody connected with the registration of any document ; and

(m) that he shall not take delivery of any registered document from the Registering Officer or present any application for a single or general search or for a certified copy or extract ;

Provided that the Registering Officer may in his discretion exempt any licensee under these rules, from the operation of this rule, if he is satisfied that the licensee is personally interested in the matter ;

(n) every non-testamentary document written by a licensee shall be attested by him in the following manner, namely :—

“Prepared and written by (name in full with licence number of the licensee and signature)”.

Explanation : Documents executed by or on behalf of the Government shall not be subject to this rule.

13. List of document writers to be published.—The licence numbers and the full name of document writers for the whole Union territory and the sub-district concerned shall be published on the Notice Board in each Sub-Registry Office.

14. Registers.—(a) A document writer shall maintain—

(i) a register in Form 'D' ; and

(ii) a receipt book with counterfoil in Form E. He shall give receipts for all moneys received on account of the work connected with every document prepared by him ;

(b) The completed registers and receipts books maintained under the rules shall be surrendered to the District Registrar at the end of each calendar year :

Provided that if the licensee dies or his licence expires or be revoked or suspended, the registers and such receipt books shall be so surrendered within 15 days from the date of such death, expiry, revocation or suspension by the representative in the case of the deceased licensee and by the licensee in other cases.

15. Licensing Authority.—The District Registrar shall be the Licensing Authority for the purpose of these rules.

(iii) Every appeal preferred under these rules shall contain all material statements and arguments relied on by the appellant and shall contain no disrespectful or improper language and be complete in itself.

(2) An appeal shall be summarily rejected if—

(i) it is a repetition of a previous appeal and is made to the same appellate authority by which such appeal has been decided and no new facts or circumstances are adduced which affords grounds for a reconsideration of the case ;

(ii) it is addressed to the authority to which no appeal lies under these rules ;

(iii) it is not preferred within two months from the date on which the appellant was informed of the order appealed against and no reasonable cause is shown for the delay ; and

(iv) it does not comply with the provisions of clause (iii) of sub-rule (1).

(3) The appellate authority shall consider—

(i) whether the facts on which the order of suspension or cancellation is based are established ;

(ii) whether the facts established afford sufficient ground for taking action and

(iii) whether the penalty imposed is excessive, adequate or inadequate and after such consideration shall pass such order as it thinks just and equitable having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

T. C. A. RANGADURAI,
Inspector-General of Registration.
