THE INDIAN STAMP ACT, 1899

INTRODUCTION

To raise revenue the British Government adopted a fiscal measure by enacting the Stamp Act, 1869 (18 of 1869) which was replaced by the Indian Stamp Act, 1879 (1 of 1879). Since the passing of the Act of 1879 the Stamp law was amended by ten different enactments. In spite of that need was felt to enact a more comprehensive law. Accordingly the Indian Stamp Bill was introduced in the Legislature. The Bill was referred to the Select Committee. On the recommendations of the Select Committee changes were made in the Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Since the Stamp Act of 1879 was passed the stamp law has been amended by ten different enactments. The present Bill proposes to repeal and re-enact in a consolidated form the whole of these enactments. It also proposes to introduce certain amendments where the working of the stamp law had disclosed defects. Alterations are printed in italics, and the material amendments which it is proposed to introduce are referred in notes on clauses given below. For facility of reference a comparative table is appended to this statement, showing how each section of the Indian Stamp Act, 1879, has been dealt with in the present Bill.

ACT 2 OF 1899

The Indian Stamp Bill having been passed by the Legislature received its assent on 27th January, 1899. It came into force on the 1st day of July, 1899 as THE INDIAN STAMP ACT, 1899 (2 of 1899).

(2) The parties may determine for themselves which of the instrument so employed shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), be deemed to be the principal instrument:

Provided that the duty chargeable on the instrument so determined shall be the highest duty which would be chargeable in respect of any of the said instruments employed.

Principal instrument: Scope of Trust and mortgage deed is the principal and primary security and not a collateral agreement in as much as an agreement of guarantee cannot be termed as the 'principal instrument' as is envisaged under section 4(1); Madras Refineries v. Board of Revenue, Madras, AIR 1977 SC 500.

Scope

The term 'deposition' has been defined in Stroud's Judicial Dictionary as a devise "intended to comprehend a mode by which property can pass whether by act of parties or by an act of the law" and "includes transfer and charge of property". As the Guarantees Agreements did not have any such effect, it did not constitute settlement also. That document was not therefore an instrument of sale, mortgage or settlement and did not fall within the purview of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Act; Madras Refineries Ltd. v. Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, Board of Revenue, AIR 1977 SC 500.

When declaration are liable to stamp duty

In case the terms of a sale deed are not only incorporated in the sale deed itself but also included in two separate deeds of declarations then transaction is completed by all the three instruments as envisaged under section 4 and both the declaration are liable to Stamp Duty; Somaiya Organics v. Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, AIR 1972 All 252.

5. Instruments relating to several distinct matters.—Any instrument comprising or relating to several distinct matters shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the duties with which separate instruments, each comprising or relating to one of such matters, would be chargeable under this Act.

COMMENTS

Applicability

Section 5 applies only when the instrument comprises more than one transaction, and it is immaterial for this purpose whether those transactions are of the same category or of different categories. When a person possess both a personal capacity and a representative capacity such as trustee, and there is a delegation of power by him in both those capacities, the position in law is exactly the same as if different persons join in executing a power in respect of matters which are unrelated. There being no community of interest between the personal estate belonging to the executant and the trust estate vested in him, they must be held to be distinct matters for purposes of section 5; Member, Board of Revenue v. Arthur Paul Benthall, AIR 1956 SC 35.

Where stamp duty is to be charged

Stamp duty is to be charged under Article 57 of the Schedule on the amount of security deposit paid for the due performance of the terms and conditions of the lease; Chief Controlling Revenue Authority v. M.P. Broxero Co., AIR 1980 Del 249.

6. Instruments coming within several descriptions in Schedule I.—Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, an instrument so framed as to come within two or more of the descriptions in Schedule I, shall, where the duties chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such duties:

Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall render chargeable with duty exceeding one rupee a counterpart or duplicate of any instrument chargeable with duty and in respect of which the proper duty has been paid.

Scope

Under section 6 of the Stamp Act, if an instrument is so framed as to come within two or more of the descriptions in Schedule I and if the duties chargeable thereunder are different the instrument will be chargeable only with the highest of such duties; Saiyed Shaban Ali v. Sheikh Mohd. Ishaq, AIR 1939 All 724.

8. Bonds, debentures or other securities issued on loans under Act 11 of 1879.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any local authority raising a loan under the provisions of the Local Authorities Loan Act, 1879, or of any other law for the time being in force, by the issue of bonds, debentures or other securities, shall, in respect of such loan, be chargeable with a duty of <sup>2</sup>[one per centum] on the total amount of the bonds, debentures or other securities issued by it, and such bonds, debentures or other securities need not be stamped and shall not be chargeable with any further duty on renewal, consolidation, sub-division or otherwise.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) exempting certain bonds, debentures or other securities from being stamped and from being chargeable with certain further duty shall apply to the bonds, debentures or other securities of all outstanding loans of the kind mentioned therein, and all such bonds, debentures or other securities shall be valid, whether the same are stamped or not:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall exempt the local authority which has issued such bonds, debentures or other securities from the duty chargeable in respect thereof prior to the twenty-sixth day of March, 1897, when such duty has not already been paid or remitted by order issued by the <sup>3</sup>[Central Government].

COMMENTS

Applicability

Section 17 provides that all instruments chargeable with duty and executed by any person in India shall be stamped before or at the time of execution. Therefore, the liability to pay stamp duty arises before or at the time of the execution of the instrument. The subsequent cancellation of the sale deed by a decree of Court can, therefore, have no bearing. There is no provision in the Act to the effect that in the event of cancellation of the instrument by a decree of Court, the liability to pay stamp duty would cease; Kunwarpal Sharma v. State of Uttar Pradesh, AIR 2003 All 7.

18. Instruments other than bills and notes executed out of India.—(1) Every instrument chargeable with duty executed only out of <sup>2</sup>[India] and not being a bill of exchange <sup>3</sup>[***] or promissory note, may be stamped within three months after it has been first received in <sup>2</sup>[India].

19. Bills and notes drawn out of India.—The first holder in <sup>2</sup>[India] of any bill of exchange <sup>4</sup>[payable otherwise than on demand], <sup>3</sup>[***] or promissory note drawn or made out of <sup>2</sup>[India] shall, before he presents the same for acceptance or payment, or endorses, transfers or otherwise negotiates the same in <sup>1</sup>[India], affix thereto the proper stamp and cancel the same:

Provided that,—

- (a) if, at the time any such bill of exchange <sup>3</sup>[***] or note comes into the hands of any holder thereof in <sup>2</sup>[India], the proper adhesive stamp is affixed thereto and cancelled in manner prescribed by section 12 and such holder has no reason to believe that such stamp was affixed or cancelled otherwise than by the person and at the time required by this Act, such stamp shall, so far as relates to such holder, be deemed to have been duly affixed and cancelled;
- (b) nothing contained in this proviso shall relieve any person from any penalty incurred by him for omitting to affix or cancel a stamp.

21. Stock and marketable securities how to be valued.—Where an instrument is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of any stock or of any marketable or other security, such duty shall be calculated on the value of such stock or security according to the average price or the value thereof on the day of the date of the instrument.

22. This section contemplates that when any property is transferred to any person in consideration wholly or in part, of any debt due to him or subject either certainly or contingently to the payment or transfer of any money or stock, whether being or constituting a charge or incumbrance upon the property or not the transfer is virtually being made for such amount plus the amount of debt and the sum total of the two amounts would be the total consideration of such transfer for the purpose of stamp-duty; Somaiya Organics (India) Ltd. v. Board of Revenue, U.P., AIR 1986 SC 403.

Where property is subject to a mortgage the transfer of the mortgagor's equity of redemption is attracted by the explanation to section 24; Chaturbhuj Das v. State, AIR 1984 MP 114.

25. Valuation in case of annuity, etc.—Where an instrument is executed to secure the payment of an annuity or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount secured by such instrument or the consideration for such conveyance, as the case may be, shall, for the purposes of this Act be deemed to be—

- (a) where the sum is payable for a definite period so that the total amount to be paid can be previously ascertained—such total amount;
- (b) where the sum is payable in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance—the total amount which, according to the terms of such instrument or conveyance, will or may be payable during the period to twenty years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due; and

Duty of parties to an instrument

It is incumbent upon the parties to an instrument to fully and truly set forth therein the consideration (if any) and all other facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of such instrument with duty, or the amount of duty with which it is chargeable failing which punishment as prescribed under section 64 of the Act can be imposed but the Revenue authorities are not vested with any power to initiate an independent inquiry of the value of the property so conveyed for determination of duty with which is chargeable; Himalaya House Co. Ltd. v. Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, AIR 1972 SC 899.

28. Direction as to duty in case of certain conveyances.—(1) when any property has been contracted to be sold for one consideration for the whole, and is conveyed to the purchaser in separate parts by different instruments, the consideration shall be apportioned in such manner as the parties think fit, provided that a distinct consideration for each separate part is set forth in the conveyance relating thereto, and such conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of such distinct consideration.

1. Subs. by Act 15 of 1904, sec. 4, for the proviso.

(2) Where property contracted to be purchased for one consideration for the whole, by two or more persons jointly, or by any person for himself and others, or wholly for others, is conveyed in parts by separate instruments to the persons by or for whom the same was purchased, for distinct parts of the consideration, the conveyance of each separate part shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the distinct part of the consideration therein specified.

(3) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the same to any other person and the property is in consequence conveyed immediately to the sub-purchaser, the conveyance shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration for the sale by the original purchaser to the sub-purchaser.

(4) Where a person, having contracted for the purchase of any property but not having obtained a conveyance thereof, contracts to sell the whole, or any part thereof, to any other person or persons and the property is in consequence conveyed by the original seller to different persons in parts, the conveyance of each part sold to a sub-purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the consideration paid by such sub-purchaser, without regard to the amount or value of the original consideration, and the conveyance of the residue (if any) of such property to the original purchaser shall be chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect only of the excess of the original consideration over the aggregate of the considerations paid by the sub-purchasers:

Provided that the duty on such last-mentioned conveyance shall in no case be less than one rupee.

(5) Where a sub-purchaser takes an actual conveyance of the interest of the person immediately selling to him, which is chargeable with ad valorem duty in respect of the consideration paid by him and is duly stamped accordingly, any conveyance to be afterward made to him of the same property by the original seller shall be chargeable with a duty equal to that which would be chargeable on a conveyance for the consideration obtained by such original seller, or, where such duty would exceed five rupees, with a duty of five rupees.

29. Duties by whom payable.—In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the expense of providing the proper stamp shall be borne—

Duty of Vendee

It is incumbent upon the vendee to propose a draft of sale deed and express his readiness and willingness to pay the amount of stamp-duty with which it is chargeable and call upon the vendor to execute the sale deed failing which it could be concluded that the vendee was not ready and willing to perform his part of the contract; Baruna v. Rajakishore, AIR 1983 Ori 107.

Obligation to pay stamp duty: On whom

Section 29(c) clearly lays down that in the case of a conveyance in absence of any agreement to the contrary, the expenses for providing proper stamps shall be borne by the grantee. The language used in the section is very clear and this provision makes it obligatory upon the vendee to pay the stamp duty. This section casts no obligation upon the vendor to pay the stamp duty; Kunwarpal Sharma v. State of Uttar Pradesh, AIR 2003 All 7.

1. Subs. by Act 5 of 1906, sec. 4, for clause (b).

30. Obligation to give receipt in certain cases.—Any person receiving any money; exceeding twenty rupees in amount, or any bill of exchange, cheque or promissory note for an amount exceeding twenty rupees, or receiving in satisfaction or part satisfaction of a debt any movable property exceeding twenty rupees in value, shall, on demand by the person paying or delivering such money, bill, cheque, note or property, give a duly stamped receipt for the same.

<sup>1</sup>[Any person receiving or taking credit for any premium or consideration for any renewal of any contract of fire-insurance, shall, within one month after receiving or taking credit for such premium or consideration, give a duly stamped receipt for the same.]

CHAPTER III

ADJUDICATION AS TO STAMPS

31. Adjudication as to proper stamp.—(1) When any instrument, whether executed or not and whether previously stamped or not, is brought to the Collector, and the person bringing it applies to have the opinion of that officer as to the duty (if any) with which it is chargeable, and pays a fee of such amount (not exceeding five rupees and not less than <sup>2</sup>[fifty naye paise]) as the Collector may in each case direct, the Collector shall determine the duty (if any) with which, in his judgment the instrument is chargeable.

(2) For this purpose the Collector may require to be furnished with an abstract of the instrument, and also with such affidavit or other evidence as he may deem necessary to prove that all the facts and circumstances affecting the chargeability of the instrument with duty, or the amount of the duty with which it is chargeable, are fully and truly set forth therein, and may refuse to proceed upon any such application until such abstract and evidence have been furnished accordingly:

Provided that—

- (a) no evidence furnished in pursuance of this section shall be used against any person in any civil proceeding, except in an enquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and
- (b) every person by whom any such evidence is furnished, shall, on payment of the full duty with which the instrument to which it relates, is chargeable, be relieved from any penalty which he may have incurred under this Act by reason of the omission to state truly in such instrument any of the facts or circumstances aforesaid.

32. Certificate by Collector.—(1) When an instrument brought to the Collector under section 31 is, in his opinion, one of a description chargeable with duty, and—

- (a) the Collector determines that it is already fully stamped, or

1. Added by Act 5 of 1906, sec. 5.

2. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, sec. 3, for "eight annas" (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

- (b) the duty determined by the Collector under section 31, or such a sum as, with the duty already paid in respect of the instrument, is equal to the duty so determined, has been paid.

the Collector shall certify by endorsement on such instrument that the full duty (stating the amount) with which it is chargeable has been paid.

(2) When such instrument is, in his opinion, not chargeable with duty, the Collector shall certify in manner aforesaid that such instrument is not so chargeable.

(3) Any instrument upon which an endorsement has been made under this section, shall be deemed to be duly stamped or not chargeable with duty, as the case may be; and, if chargeable with duty, shall be receivable in evidence or otherwise, and may be acted upon and registered as if it had been originally duly stamped:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorise the Collector to endorse—

- (a) any instrument executed or first executed in <sup>1</sup>[India] and brought to him after the expiration of one month from the date of its execution or first execution, as the case may be;
- (b) any instrument executed or first executed out of <sup>1</sup>[India] and brought to him after the expiration of three months after it has been first received in <sup>1</sup>[India]; or
- (c) any instrument chargeable <sup>2</sup>[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise], or any bill of exchange or promissory note, when brought to him, after the drawing or execution thereof, on paper not duly stamped.

CHAPTER IV

INSTRUMENTS NOT DULY STAMPED

33. Examination and impounding of instruments.—(1) Every person having by law or consent of parties, authority to receive evidence, and every person in charge of a public office, except an officer of police, before whom any instrument, chargeable, in his opinion, with duty, is produced or comes in the performance of his functions, shall, if it appears to him that such instrument is not duly stamped, impound the same.

(2) For that purpose every such person shall examine every instrument so chargeable and so produced or coming before him, in order to ascertain whether it is stamped with a stamp of the value and description required by the law in force in <sup>1</sup>[India] when such instrument was executed or first executed:

Provided that—

- (a) nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any Magistrate or Judge of a Criminal Court to examine or impound, if he does not think fit so to do, any instrument coming before him in the course of any proceeding other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898);

1. Subs. by Act 43 of 1955, sec. 2, for "the States" (w.e.f. 1-4-1956).

2. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, sec. 4, for "with the duty of one anna or half an anna" (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

- (b) in the case of a Judge of a High Court, the duty of examining and impounding any instrument under this section may be delegated to such officer as the Court appoints in this behalf.
- (3) For the purposes of this section, in cases of doubt,—
- (a) <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[State Government]] may determine what offices shall be deemed to be public offices; and
- (b) <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[State Government]] may determine who shall be deemed to be persons in charge of public offices.

Applicability

If any person does not want to proceed any further than seeking the determination of the duty payable then no consequence will follow and an executed document is in the same position as an instrument which is unexecuted and unstamped and after the determination of the duty the collector becomes functus officio and the provisions of section 33 have no application; Government of Uttar Pradesh v. Raja Mohammad Amir Ahmad Khan, AIR 1961 SC 787.

34. Special provision as to unstamped receipts.—Where any receipt chargeable <sup>3</sup>[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] is tendered to or produced before any officer unstamped in the course of the audit of any public account, such officer may in his discretion instead of impounding the instrument, require a duly stamped receipt to be substituted therefor.

35. Instruments not duly stamped inadmissible in evidence, etc.—No instrument chargeable with duty shall be admitted in evidence for any purpose by any person having by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence, or shall be acted upon, registered or authenticated by any such person or by any public officer, unless such instrument is duly stamped:

Provided that—

- (a) any such instrument <sup>4</sup>[shall], be admitted in evidence on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable, or, in the case of an instrument insufficiently stamped, of the amount required to make up such duty, together with a penalty of five rupees, or, when ten times the amount of the proper duty or deficient portion thereof exceeds five rupees, of a sum equal to ten times such duty or portion;
- (b) where any person from whom a stamped receipt could have been demanded, has given an unstamped receipt and such receipt, if stamped, would be admissible in evidence against him, then such receipt shall be admitted in evidence against him, then such receipt shall be admitted in evidence against him on payment of a penalty of one rupee by the person tendering it;
- (c) where a contract or agreement of any kind is effected by correspondence consisting of two or more letters and any one of the

2. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for "collecting Government".

3. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, sec. 5, for "with a duty of one anna" (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

4. Subs. by the Finance Act, 2006.

letters bears the proper stamp, the contract or agreement shall be deemed to be duly stamped;

- (d) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in evidence in any proceeding in a Criminal Court, other than a proceeding under Chapter XII or Chapter XXXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 ( 5 of 1898);
- (e) nothing herein contained shall prevent the admission of any instrument in any Court when such instrument has been executed by or on behalf of <sup>1</sup>[the <sup>2</sup>[Government]] or where it bears the certificate of the Collector as provided by section 32 or any other provision of this Act.

COMMENTS

Appeal

An appeal lies from an order admitting documents as it affects the rights and liabilities of party aggrieved by such an order; T.N. Habib Khan v. Arogya Mary Shanti Lucin, AIR 1982 Mad 156.

Applicability

The provisions of section 35 are not attracted to a case where the contention about improper stamping of the instrument forming the subject matter of a suit was not raised at the trial court stage in as much as the original instrument having been lost from the records of the court would raise a presumption of the said instrument having been properly stamped; Hari Jivan Sahu v. Jairam Sahu, AIR 1989 Pat 96.

When promissory note insufficiently stamped

An insufficiently stamped promissory note executed as collateral security cannot be accepted in evidence whereas some other evidence can be adduced to prove oral agreement in respect of the debt; Khitish Chandra v. Raj Kishore Sahu, AIR 1980 Ori 10.

36. Admission of instrument where not to be questioned.—Where an instrument has been admitted in evidence, such admission shall not, except as provided in section 61, be called in question at any stage of the same suit or proceeding on the ground that the instrument has not duly stamped.

COMMENTS

Applicability

This section does not apply to a copy of document or secondary evidence recorded to prove the contents of an unstamped or insufficiently stamped document; Japudi v. Pulavarthi, AIR 1971 SC 1070.

Admissibility

When a document has once been admitted in evidence, such admission cannot be called in question at any stage of the suit or the proceeding on the ground that the instrument had not been duly stamped. The only exception recognised by the section is the class of cases contemplated by section 61. Section 36 does not admit of other exceptions. Where a question as to the admissibility of a document is raised on the ground that it has not been stamped, or has not been properly stamped it has to be decided then and there where the document is tendered in evidence. Once the Court, rightly or wrongly, decides to admit the document in evidence, so far as the parties concerned, the matter is closed; Javer Chand v. Pukhraj Surma, AIR 1961 SC 1665.

Document once admitted cannot be controverted

Where a document has been admitted and placed on record as an exhibit the same cannot be controverted either by the trial court or the appellate court or in revision; Rajendra Prasad v. Siba Devi, AIR 1982 Pat 65.

1. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for "the Government".
2. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for "Crown".

Marking of document

Mere marking of document as an exhibit on record does not dispense with the proof thereof; S.T. Khimchand v. Satyam, AIR 1971 SC 1865.

Prohibition

Section 36 does not prohibit a challenge against an instrument that it shall not be acted upon because it is not only duly stamped but on that account there is no bar against an instrument not duly stamped being acted upon after payment of the stamp duty and penalty according to the procedure prescribed by the Act; Hindustan Steel Ltd. v. Dilip Construction Co., AIR 1969 SC 1238.

When objection cannot be entertained

Any objection with respect to admissibility of a document on account of insufficiency of stamps or proper cancellation of stamps cannot be entertained after evidence has been adduced and document exhibited on record; Nathi v. Ghansi, AIR 1987 P&H 105.

37. Admission of improperly stamped instruments.—<sup>1</sup>[The <sup>2</sup>[State Government]] may make rules providing that, where an instrument bears a stamp of sufficient amount but of improper description, it may, on payment of the duty with which the same is chargeable be certified to be duly stamped, and any instrument so certified shall then be deemed to have been duly stamped as from the date of its execution.

38. Instruments impounded, how dealt with.—(1) Where the person impounding an instrument under section 33 has by law or consent of parties authority to receive evidence and admits such instrument in evidence upon payment of a penalty as provided by section 35 or of duty as provided by section 37, he shall send to the Collector an authenticated copy of such instrument, together with a certificate in writing, stating the amount of duty and penalty levied in respect thereof, and shall send such amount to the Collector, or to such person as he may appoint in this behalf.

(2) In every other case, the person so impounding an instrument shall send it in original to the Collector.

39. Collector's power to refund penalty paid under section 38, sub-section (1).—(1) When a copy of an instrument is sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (1), he may, if he thinks fit <sup>3</sup>[***] refund any portion of the penalty in excess of five rupees which has been paid in respect of such instrument.

(2) When such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may refund the whole penalty so paid.

40. Collector's power to stamp instruments impounded.—(1) When the Collector impounds any instrument under section 33, or receives any instrument sent to him under section 38, sub-section (2), not being an instrument chargeable <sup>4</sup>[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] only or a bill of exchange or promissory note, he shall adopt the following procedure:—

- (a) if he is of opinion that such instrument is duly stamped, or is not chargeable with duty, he shall certify by endorsement thereon that it is duly stamped, or that it is not so chargeable, as the case may be;
- (b) if he is of opinion that such instrument is chargeable with duty and is not duly stamped, he shall require the payment of the proper duty

1. Subs. by the A.O. 1937, for "the Governor-General in Council".

2. Subs. by the A.O. 1950, for "collecting Government".

3. Certain words omitted by Act 4 of 1914, sec. 2, and Sch., Pt. I.

4. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, sec. 6, for "with a duty of anna or half an anna" (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

or the amount required to make up the same, together with a penalty of the five rupees; or, if he thinks fit, <sup>1</sup>[an amount not exceeding] ten times the amount of the proper duty or of the deficient portion thereof, whether such amount exceeds or falls short of five rupees:

Provided that, when such instrument has been impounded only because it has been written in contravention of section 13 or section 14, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, remit the whole penalty prescribed by this section.

(2) Every certificate under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

(3) Where an instrument has been sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), the Collector shall, when he has dealt with it as provided by the section, return it to the impounding officer.

41. Instruments unduly stamped by accident.—If any instrument chargeable with duty and not duly stamped, not being an instrument chargeable <sup>2</sup>[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] only or a bill of exchange or promissory note, is produced by any person of his own motion before the Collector within one year from the date of its execution or first execution, and such person brings to the notice of the Collector the fact that such instrument is not duly stamped and offers to pay the Collector the amount of the proper duty, or the amount required to make up the same, and the Collector is satisfied that the omission to duly stamp such instrument has been occasioned by accident, mistake or urgent necessity, he may, instead of proceeding under sections 33 and 40, receive such amount and proceed as next hereinafter prescribed.

42. Endorsement of instruments in which duty has been paid under section 35, 40 or 41.—(1) When the duty and penalty (if any) leviable in respect of any instrument have been paid under section 35, section 40 or section 41, the person admitting such instrument in evidence or the Collector, as the case may be, shall certify by endorsement thereon that the proper duty or, as the case may be, the proper duty and penalty (stating the amount of each) have been levied in respect thereof, and the name and residence of the person paying them.

(2) Every instrument so endorsed shall thereupon be admissible in evidence, and may be registered and acted upon and authenticated as if it had been duly stamped, and shall be delivered on his application in this behalf to the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the officer impounding it, or as such person may direct:

Provided that—

- (a) no instrument which has been admitted in evidence upon payment of duty and a penalty under section 35, shall be so delivered before the expiration of one month from the date of such impounding, or if the Collector has certified that its further detention is necessary and has not cancelled such certificate;
- (b) nothing in this section shall affect the <sup>3</sup>Code of Civil Procedure, 1882 (14 of 1882), section 144 clause 3.

43. Prosecution for offence against Stamp-law.—The taking of proceedings or the payment of a penalty under this Chapter in respect of any instrument shall not bar the prosecution of any person who appears to have committed an offence against the Stamp-law in respect of such instrument:

1. Ins. by Act 15 of 1904, sec. 6.

2. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, sec. 6, for "with a duty of one anna or half an anna" (w.e.f. 1-10-1958).

3. See now the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), Sch. I, Order XIII, rule 9.

Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted in the case of any instrument in respect of which such a penalty has been paid, unless it appears to the Collector that the offence was committed with an intention of evading payment of the proper duty.

44. Persons paying duty or penalty may recover same in certain cases.—

(1) When any duty or penalty has been paid under section 35, section 37, section 40 or section 41, by any person in respect of an instrument, and, by agreement or under the provisions of section 29 or any other enactment in force at the time such instrument was executed, some other person was bound to bear the expense of providing the proper stamp for such instrument, the first-mentioned person shall be entitled to recover from such other person the amount of the duty or penalty so paid.

(2) For the purpose of such recovery any certificate granted in respect of such instrument under this Act shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein certified.

(3) Such amount may, if the Court thinks fit, be included in any order as to costs in any suit or proceeding to which such persons are parties and in which such instrument has been tendered in evidence. If the Court does not include the amount in such order, no further proceedings for the recovery of the amount shall be maintainable.

45. Power to Revenue authority to refund penalty or excess duty in certain cases.—(1) Where any penalty is paid under section 35 or section 40, the Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority may, upon application in writing made within one year from the date of the payment, refund such penalty wholly or in part.

(2) Where, in the opinion of the Chief Controlling Revenue-Authority, stamp-duty in excess of that which is legally chargeable has been charged and paid under section 35 or section 40, such authority may, upon application in writing made within three months of the order charging the same, refund the excess.

46. Non-liability for loss of instruments sent under section 38.—(1) If any instrument sent to the Collector under section 38, sub-section (2), is lost, destroyed or damaged during transmission, the person sending the same shall not be liable for such loss, destruction or damage.

(2) When any instrument is about to be so sent, the person from whose possession it came into the hands of the person impounding the same, may require a copy thereof to be made at the expense of such first-mentioned person and authenticated by the person impounding such instrument.

47. Power of payer to stamp bills and promissory notes received by him unstamped.—When any bill of exchange <sup>1</sup>[or promissory note] chargeable <sup>2</sup>[with a duty not exceeding ten naye paise] is presented for payment unstamped, the person to whom it is so presented, may affix thereto the necessary adhesive stamp, and, upon cancelling the same in manner hereinbefore provided, may pay the sum payable upon such bill <sup>3</sup>[or note], and may charge the duty against the person who ought to have paid the same, or deduct it from the sum payable as aforesaid, and such bill <sup>3</sup>[or note] shall, so far as respects the duty, be deemed good and valid:

1. Subs. by Act 5 of 1927, sec. 5, for "promissory note or cheque".

2. Subs. by Act 19 of 1958, sec. 7, for "with the duty of one anna" (w.e. 1-10-1958).

3. Subs. by Act 5 of 1927, sec. 5, for "note or cheque".

Provided that nothing herein contained shall relieve any person from any penalty or proceeding to which he may be liable in relation to such bill <sup>1</sup>[or note].

48. Recovery of duties and penalties.—All duties, penalties and other sums required to be paid under this Chapter may be recovered by the Collector by distress and sale of the movable property of the person from whom the same are due, or by any other process for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land-revenue.

CHAPTER V

ALLOWANCES FOR STAMPS IN CERTAIN CASES

49. Allowance for spoiled stamps.—Subject to such rules as may be made by <sup>2</sup>[the <sup>3</sup>[State Government]] as to the evidence to be required or, the enquiry to be made, the Collector may, on application made with the period prescribed in section 50, and if he is satisfied as to the facts, make allowance for impressed stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned, namely:—

- (a) the stamp on any paper inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated or by error in writing or any other means rendered unfit for the purpose intended before any instrument written thereon is executed by any person;
- (b) the stamp on any document which is written out wholly or in part, but which is not signed or executed by any party thereto;
- (c) in the case of bills of exchange <sup>4</sup>[payable otherwise than on demand] <sup>5</sup>[***] or promissory notes—

- (1) the stamp on <sup>6</sup>[any such bill of exchange] <sup>7</sup>[***] signed by or on behalf of the drawer which has not been accepted or made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands for any purpose other than by way of tender for acceptance:

Provided that the paper on which any such stamp is impressed, does not bear any signature intended as or for the acceptance of any bill of exchange <sup>7</sup>[***] to be afterwards written thereon;

- (2) the stamp on any promissory note signed by or on behalf of the maker which has not been made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands;

Provided that in the case of an executed instrument, no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled.

Explanation.—The certificate of the Collector under section 32 that the full duty with which an instrument is chargeable, has been paid is an impressed stamp within the meaning of this section.

50. Application for relief under section 49 when to be made.—The application for relief under section 49 shall be made within the following periods, that is to say—

1. The words “or cheque” omitted by Act 5 of 1927, sec. 5.
