Insertion of new section 47-A.

8. After section 47 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted namely :-

Instruments of conveyance, etc., under-valued how to be dealt with.

"47-A. (1) If the registering officer appointed under the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (Central Act 16 of 1908) while registering any instrument of 'Conveyance, exchange, gift, partition or settlement' has reason to believe that the market value of the property which is the subject matter of Conveyance, exchange, gift, partition or settlement¹ has not been truly set forth in the instrument, he may, after registering such instrument refer the same to the Collector for determination of the market value of such property and the proper duty payable thereon.

(2) On receipt of a reference under sub-section (1), the collector shall, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after holding an enquiry in such manner as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act, determine the market value of the property which is the subject matter of 'Conveyance, exchange, gift, partition or settlement¹' and the duty as aforesaid. The difference, if any, in the amount of duty, shall be payable by the person liable to pay the duty.

(3) The Collector may, suo motu, within two years from the date of registration of any instrument of 'Conveyance, exchange, gift, partition or settlement¹' not already referred to him under sub-section (1), call for and examine the instrument for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness of the market value of the property which is the subject matter of Conveyance, exchange, gift, partition or settlement¹ and the duty payable thereon and if, after such examination, he has reason to believe that the market value of such property has not been truly set forth in the instrument he may determine the market value of such property and the duty as aforesaid in accordance with the procedure provided for in sub-section (2). The difference, if any, in the amount of duty, shall be payable by the person liable to pay the duty :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any instrument registered before the date of the commencement of the Indian stamp (Pondicherry Amendment) Act, 1970.

(4) (a) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Collector under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) may appeal to the appellate authority specified in sub-section (5).

(b) All such appeals shall be preferred within such time, and shall be heard and disposed of in such manner, as may be prescribed by rules made under this Act.

(5) The appellate authority shall be subordinate Judge, or if there are more than one subordinate Judge, the principal subordinate Judge having jurisdiction over the area in which the property concerned is situated.

Explanation : For the purposes of this Act, market value of any property shall be estimated to be the price which in the opinion of the Collector or the appellate authority, as the case may be, such property would have fetched or fetch, if sold in the open market on the date of execution of the instrument of 'Conveyance, exchange, gift, partition or settlement¹'.

Substitution of new section for section 78.

9. For section 78 of the principal Act (Central Act 2 of 1899), the following section shall be substituted, namely :-

1. Substituted by Notification No.15891/76/C dt 4-10-1976 published in E.O.G. No. 456 dt 7-10-1976.
